

Ogden Grid Machines In Annual Fracas Saturday

WEBER PINS HOPES ON THESE PLAYERS

Football Treat Promises Action for Fans; Ogden High Warriors Must Win to Take Division Title; Thousands Expected to Attend

Saturday's Probable Lineup

Ogden High (7)	No.
Left End	1
Left Tackle	2
Left Guard	3
Center	4
Right Guard	5
Right Tackle	6
Right End	7
Quarterback	8
Halfback	9
Fullback	10

By AL WARREN.
Afternoon at Loran Farr park, Weber High school, coached by Al Warren, former University of Utah star, and Ogden High, led by Coach Kappeler, one-time brilliant performer at the Utah Aggie, meet in one of the biggest interschool football games of the year, and expected to be one of the most bitterly fought games that has ever been played between the two eleven.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS	W.	L.	Pct.
Ogden	3	0	1.000
Weber	2	1	.667
Box Elder	2	1	.667
Davis	1	2	.333
Bear River	0	4	.000

Today's Schedule
Davis at Box Elder.

Saturday's Schedule
Ogden vs. Weber at Ogden.

COACHES CONFIDENT.
Coach Merlyn Stevenson today said:

"My men are in good shape and ready for the big battle. If Ogden wins they will know that they have been in a battle from start to finish. We have the best team in our history and if they trim us, they trim our best offering."

Dixon Kappeler, director of athletics at Ogden, when asked concerning the game, said: "The Tiger athletes have their heart and soul in the Saturday game with the expectation of gaining a victory and thereby clinching the division title. Our men will be in there fighting, fighting to gain the right to play in the semi-final for the state title here next week."

AT GRID CAMPS

15-25-64
12-00-1/2

Wild Ashton will referee the Ogden-Weber contest Saturday. Jim Hamilton has been named to officiate as umpire. The headliners for the feature game will be named Saturday.

Spectators will not be allowed on the sidelines or the playing field during the game. Newspaper men and camera men will be the only ones allowed on the sidelines. Officers from the police department will be on the grounds to see that this rule is enforced.

Automobiles will be parked on the south end of the field, 30 feet from the boundary line. Those who park in this area, may remain seated in their cars if they so desire during the game.

More than 3000 students and fans are expected to attend the contest.

The school yells and songs will tell those who remain away from the game of the interest in the annual tilt.

Tickets for the Saturday matinee have been placed on sale in the downtown drug stores and leading cigar stores. From the advance sale, a record crowd should attend.

Special street car service has been obtained. Cars will leave Twenty-fifth street for the park beginning at 12:45 p. m., sharp.

On the dope sheet, the game should be one of the greatest of the season. Better make your date now!

(Special Dispatch)
SPRINGVILLE, Nov. 10.—Springville, winner of the Utah county championship, will meet the Wasatch academy, champions of the Sanpete-Sevier division here today. The team losing will be eliminated from the race for the state title. The winning team will meet the Ogden division winner at Ogden next Friday to determine just which eleven will meet the winner of the Salt Lake-Cache Valley division game in the final. Wasatch is the favorite in the battle today.

The Weber second team defeated the Davis seconds at Kayaville Thursday on a slow field, the score being 31 to 0.

Utah grid warriors departed last night for Boise, Idaho, where they will meet the Idaho University Saturday.

The Brigham Young college warriors and the Utah University freshmen are meeting at Logan today.

Weber Pins Hopes On These Players

Top row, left to right: Hallday, quarterback; Hickman, left end; Couch, fullback. Bottom row, left to right: Budge, right halfback; Paulson, left guard; Anderson, captain, left halfback. Center row, left to right: Malcolm Watson and Merlyn Stevenson, coaches, watching their men in action. The players pictured above are the chaps slated to down the Tigers Saturday, in the annual Ogden-Weber contest.

SIKI'S LIFE STORY

BY BATTLING SIKI
As Told by Milton Bronner, NEA Staff Correspondent
CHAPTER SIX—The Carpenter Fight.

The long road to boxing glory and some money, too, came to a turning in December, 1921. I finally got into the ring with one of the big fighters of France.

It was Paul Journee, Sporting writers came to see him "kill the black." But I won on points in 13 rounds. Then I had three fights which gave me a chance to force Carpenter to fight me.

In January, I beat Rogers in 12 rounds, winning on points. I out-pointed Journee again in March. Finally, on June 23, I beat Marcel Nilles, the real heavyweight champion of France, winning on points in fifteen rounds.

Nilles was my most important opponent. He often tried to meet Carpenter, but Desamps always got in the way. They said after I beat him that Nilles broke both wrists punching my head. All I know is he is a game fighter and I learned a lot by fighting him.

PARIS LAUGHS AT HIM
That takes us up to the meeting with Georges. The Paris crowd laughed at me in the first two rounds. Sporting writers said I was afraid, and that is why I crouched. They had said the fight would end in the first round. I made up my mind, no matter what happened, it wouldn't end in the first round, nor the second.

I knew when it came to science Georges had me beat. I knew all about his swiftness. And they said he could punch awfully hard. I tried to square off in such a way that he could not hit me at all, and if he did he would hit my head in places where a knock-out would not follow.

Well, Georges punches me a number of times when I thought he couldn't, and he gave me all he had, but I soon saw it wasn't enough. His punch wasn't going to knock me out. I had him sized up, saw what he had and believed my strength superior, my punch at least equal.

GEORGES GOES DOWN
I sailed in, and the rest you know. He was courageous, very courageous. He took an awful beating without a whimper, and kept coming in for more until he didn't know where he was at.

Beating him made me the champion heavyweight of Europe and the mid-weight champion of the world.

That talk about the fighting championship is crazy. The point is not the beauty or ugliness of my manner in the ring. The point is I won fairly by taking the best Georges could give and returning blow for blow when I saw the chance.

I want to meet more big men. I make no predictions. I simply fight my best. Who and where I fight next is up to Charley Heilers, He's my manager, and when he says fight, I fight.

WANTS DEMPESEY GO
If he says, "Siki, you must get ready to fight Jack Dempsey," I would get ready. Dempsey may be a mountain of a man and a wonderful boxer and a great puncher, and quick as a cat, but I would take a chance.

I would try to make it lively for Monsieur Dempsey. I would do more. I would try to bring the world's championship to France, for me—I am a French citizen.

I want to go on fighting and make money and save it. Then, some day, when I am beaten, as all fighters are, I plan to settle down in the country in France with my wife and be a farmer. I like to see things growing—calves, babies, chickens, and trees.

THE END.
(Copyright, 1922, NEA Service)

The SPORTLIGHT

by Grantland Rice

(Copyright, 1922, New York Tribune, Inc. Trade Mark Registered, U. S. Patent Office.)

NOVEMBER 10, 1918
(The Doughboy speaks)

We could hear the gray winds whisper. Through each tangled weed and grain. "If you only live till morning. You will soon be home again. If you only live till morning. You will find the ancient glow. Where the friendly rivers wander. By the hills you used to know."

We could hear the gray winds calling. As the H. B. ripples the loam; "If you only live till morning. You will find the ancient glow. Where the friendly rivers wander. By the hills you used to know."

"One more day of wreck and terror. One more night of death and pain. One more dawn in muddy trenches. Through the shell blast and the rain. It's through with pack and rifle. And the long hike through the glen. If you only live till morning. You will soon be home again."

In passing judgment upon football consider this—the average football player rarely gets the chance to play vast upset—any upset approaching

East Meets West in Grid Game Saturday

SALT LAKE, Nov. 10.—The annual East-West football game will be staged at Cummings field here Saturday. With the Leopards leading the Salt Lake division, the Panthers are hoping to gain a victory, and thereby tie their rivals.

In the Saturday contest the Leopards will have their first real chance to "open up" and show something. In games played to date the East eleven has taken no chances.

The showing of the L. D. S. eleven against both East and West has placed the two teams on even terms.

Light workouts will be held at both schools today.

The kickoff is set for 2:30 o'clock Saturday.

GOLF EXPERTS TO PLAY HERE

Ogden golf lovers will have a chance to witness two of the world's foremost golfers in action at the Ogden Golf and Country club Saturday morning when Walter Hagen and Joe Kirkwood entertain. These two world stars will meet George "Gik" Von Elm and Leon Keller in an 18-hole match, after which Kirkwood will display his ability as a trick shot expert. The match play is to begin promptly at 10 a. m.

W. Rice Kimball is in charge of the arrangements for the appearance of the golfers at the local club.

Here are some interesting facts concerning Walter Hagen, British open champion and Joe Kirkwood, the Australian golfer, in connection with their world tour.

They have played more than 65 matches and never have failed to appear for an engagement.

Up to the present, rain has only interfered twice with scheduled matches and these were played at a later date.

Gene Sarazen, American open champion, made a hole in one at Columbus while playing in an exhibition against Hagen and Kirkwood. Hagen has never made a hole in one and hopes that his first will come during an exhibition match.

Galleries get more pleasure when Hagen cracks one on the nose off the tee and during Kirkwood's exhibition shots than at anything else.

Hagen is the best dressed player in professional golf. Gene Sarazen has attempted to follow Hagen's pace in clothes, but King Walter's friends insist that Walter is still one up on the field when it comes to uniforms.

A colony of actors and actresses at Lake Placid, after seeing Hagen in action, told him that he would go big on the stage, because of his complete self-control, and convincing manner on the golf course.

Because he holds the British open championship title, some people believe that Walter Hagen is an Englishman. Hagen was born at Rochester, N. Y. He is the only American born golfer who ever won the British open championship, the most sought after title in competitive golf, winning this year, at Sandwich, his third assault on British links.

The two crack players will display their wares at Salt Lake today and Sunday.

Ogden golfers are expected to turn out en masse for the appearance of the two noted performers. A small gallery charge will be listed.

The term "zoophyte" is applied to the lowest primary division of the animal kingdom, so low that many of its organisms have the form of plants.

NEW MIT CLUB TO OPEN WITH KEEN PROGRAM

Manhattan Club Opening Set for Today With Six Flashy Bouts

TONIGHT'S CARD.
Nelson vs. Baer, six rounds.
Briggs vs. Johnson, four rounds.
Richmond vs. Jackson, four rounds.
Barker vs. Jones, four rounds.
Hardy vs. Wallace, four rounds.
Bowers vs. O'Brien, four rounds.
Promptly at 8:30 o'clock this evening.

ing at the Armory on Twenty-fourth street, the Manhattan club will officially open the 1922 boxing season, with six proprietary bouts as the offerings for the fans of Ogden and vicinity. Promoter Hardy K. Downing has made complete arrangements for the opener and a record crowd is expected to attend.

Al Nelson, the Boise "Bear Cat," will tangle with Rudy "Kid" Baer in the main event over the six-round route. Both of these boys are fast and clever and should dish out a nifty bout for the fans.

The Boise battler has been meeting all comers at his weight and expects to add Baer to his list of victories. On the other hand the Logan boxer is just as confident of victory. Having developed a wicked punch in either palm, Baer is out to send Nelson to the land of the daisies.

With these two artists booked in the main event, action should be supreme.

Although booked as a semi-windup bout between Red Briggs of Salt Lake, popular local favorite, and Billie Johnson of Ogden, should be a corker. If past matches between these two gents can be taken for an indication, tonight's meeting will be a top notcher. Briggs after a successful season on the coast is expected to display several new punches for the crowd.

The Ogden boxer is primed for a battle and does not underestimate the ability of the Salt Laker.

Joe Jackson of Oakland will exchange punches with Lon Richmond in one of the other four-round events. These two boys have good records and are slated to display class galore. Richmond hails from Salt Lake and has been knocking opponents over in rapid style of late.

Tom Jones of Logan and Dutch Barker of Salt Lake are primed for their four-round clash. Barker comes to Ogden with a nifty record, but will no doubt meet stiff opposition in the Loganite.

Walter Wallace of Boise and Bill Hardy of Ogden will meet in the other four-round feature event. Hardy is well-known to Ogden fans as a battler, while Wallace is considered a corner.

In the curtain raiser Jimmie Bowers of Salt Lake will meet Dick O'Brien of Salt Lake in a four-round mill.

Bouts will be held weekly at the Armory commencing at 8:30 o'clock sharp. Promoter Downing announces. Tickets for the opening card this evening are on sale at Hemenway and Mosers' cigar store and de Wit Brothers cigar store.

FRENCH REMOVE CROWN OF SIKI

Tom Gibbons Would Fight Negro in Place of Joe Beckett

PARIS, Nov. 10.—(By The Associated Press.) "Batting" Siki, aspirant for the crown that sits upon Jack Dempsey's head, today was standing with reluctant feet where the champions and has-beens meet.

Thursday night the French boxing federation snatched away his title of light heavyweight champion of France, and suspended him from practicing his business in France for a period of nine months. Only a few hours before the French conqueror of Georges Carpentier had stumbled into another block of hard luck, the British home office forbidding his scheduled fight with Joe Beckett to take place on British soil.

ACTION BY THE ENGLISH authorities was taken because Siki is a negro and Beckett is white, and it was deemed that "all sorts of passions would be aroused" if they met in the ring. But the heavy French have put on Siki was caused by an over-thought. Wednesday night, when he was acting as a second for Ercole de Balzac, he jumped to the ring when his man was knocked out and struck the manager of the victorious battler, Maurice Prunier.

The boxing federation has now asked the international federation to deprive the Senegalese fighter of his title of world light heavyweight champion, which he picked from the handsome brow of Georges Carpentier.

Under the federation's ruling Thursday night, Siki, during the next nine months, cannot engage in a boxing match, or act as manager or a second in any bouts organized under the rules of the federation.

GIBBONS WANTS BOUT.
CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul heavyweight, through his manager, Eddie Kane, has asked for a chance to take the place of Batting Siki against Joe Beckett, English heavyweight.

When the British home office drew the color line, Kane cabled Major Wilson, promoter of the proposed match, asking him to substitute Gibbons for Siki.

The Siki-Beckett match was scheduled for December 7 in London and was barred at the same time the French boxing commission suspended Siki for nine months and took away his crown of light-heavyweight champion because of his conduct at the Prunier-Balzac fight, when he struck Prunier's manager.

His wares at Salt Lake today and Sunday.

Ogden golfers are expected to turn out en masse for the appearance of the two noted performers. A small gallery charge will be listed.

The term "zoophyte" is applied to the lowest primary division of the animal kingdom, so low that many of its organisms have the form of plants.